"My object is to call attention to the fact, that a policy of Life Insurance is the cheapest and safest mode of making a certain provision for one's family."—BENJAMIN FRANKLIN.

"One should insure in health, as sickness may suddenly overtake the most robust, and disqualify him for insurance.

"Life insurance the best investment. If long-lived, the insured obtains a good interest on the premium paid, in cash dividends, and, in most instances, a very large return for a small outlay. In case of death, there is a great advantage over Savings Banks.

"The average length of human life is only thirty-three years. Of 500 persons, only one lives 90 years, and of 100, only six live 65 years."

B. F. STEVENS, Secretary.

Reference to parties in New York will be given, when desired, upon application at the Branch Office.

The surplus is divided among all the policy holders in CASH, thus affording a good and certain rate of interest upon the outlay of premiums, and avoiding the large and unnecessary accumulations of unpaid dividends of uncertain tendency, and erroneously called capital.

One-half of the first five annual premiums on life policies, loaned to insurers if desired; the remaining half may be paid quarterly.

The premiums are as low as those of any reliable Company.

This is the oldest American Mutual Life Insurance Company, and one of the most successful, and is purely Mutual, dividing all the surplus profits among the Insured.

Insurance may be effected for the benefit of married women, beyond the reach of her husband's creditors. Creditors may insure the lives of debtors.

Blank form of application for Insurance, or the Company's Pamphlet, containing the Charter, Rules and Regulations, also the Annual Reports, showing the condition of the Company, will be furnished gratis.

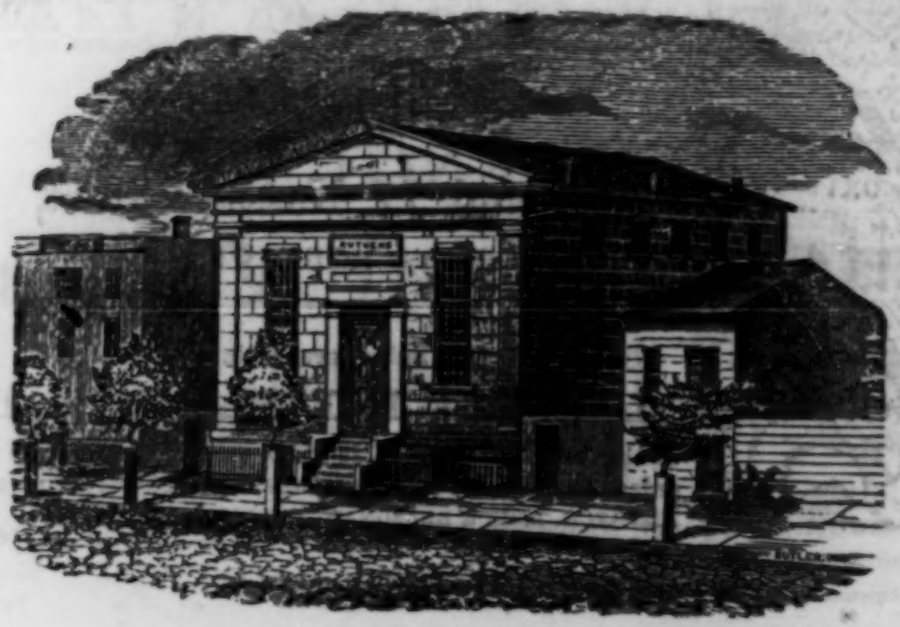
RUTGERS
FEMALE INSTITUTE,



Nos. 262, 264, and 266 MADISON STREET, N. Y.

The Rutgers Female Institute has been in successful operation for nineteen years. During this period about five thousand young ladies have been under its care, and have received a substantial education, including the valuable ornamental branches. With its commodious edifices located in one of the most healthful, quiet, and moral neighborhoods in the city, easy of access from all quarters, and surrounded by churches,—and with its very extensive Library and Philosophical Apparatus,—its ample range and thoroughness of study,—its system of classification, securing the fullest attention of the instructors to the pupils,—its large and efficient body of experienced teachers,—the vigilant supervision of the Board of Trustees,—the freedom from distracting frivolities,—the constant aim to impart a solid education of the highest order,—the incomparably low charges, and, it may be added, with the character and attainments of its graduates and pupils, and its high standard and widely extended reputation,—the Rutgers Female Institute offers to parents and guardians a most eligible opportunity for the education of young ladies.

The Institute comprises three departments,—the Preparatory, Academic, and Collegiate. These are subdivided as the number of pupils and the degrees of their progress may require. There is a special department for each extra study, and each room has its separate teacher.

In every department where it is practicable, free use is made of illustrations to the eye.

It is the aim, in every stage of the course, to have pupils acquire a knowledge of things, facts, and principles, rather than mere words. And the studies are so pursued, and varied with appropriate recreation and exercise, as to provide for the physical, intellectual, and moral edification of the pupil. Special attention is given to the inculcation of those great scriptural principles which should govern the moral being, and to the decorum which should distinguish the social circle. Semi-monthly reports are sent to the parents, and, at the close of the academic year, suitable testimonials are given to those who have pursued a commendable course throughout. A diploma is also given to those who have completed the course of study.

The Twentieth Annual Session commences on the thirteenth day of September next, and is divided into four terms of eleven weeks each. The Principal has a commodious residence near the Institute, and receives into his family pupils from a distance, who will thus be under his immediate and constant care.

Board, including fuel, lights, and washing, and instruction in English branches, $300 per annum, payable quarterly in advance.

EXTRAS.—French, German, Italian, or Latin, $5; Oil Painting and Pastel, $10. Music, for Piano, $15 to $35; Use of Instrument, $5. Guitar, $15 to $20.

The Trustees most cordially invite parents seeking for their daughters a system of mental culture most effective in developing and maturing the faculties of the mind, to examine, by personal visitation, the practical working of Rutgers Female Institute. The Principal will be happy to introduce, to any of the Departments, persons wishing to inspect the method of instruction, and to answer all inquiries.

For further information, apply to

MR. HENRY M. PIERCE, PRINCIPAL,
217 MADISON STREET,

or to the President, REV. DR. KREBS, 147 Henry Street.

THE FACULTY OF INSTRUCTION consists of the REV. JOHN M. KREBS, D. D., President and Lecturer on the Evidences of Christianity; MR. HENRY M. PIERCE, A. M., Principal, and Professor of Moral Philosophy; assisted by a full corps of able and experienced teachers in all the several Departments.
